ONE DOLLAR AND FIFTY CENTS A YEAR IN ADVANCE

UNION COLLEGE

The Commencement Program at Union College this week opened with excellent numbers.

Friday, May 16th the Sub-Academy recital by the younger children under the able guidance of Miss Campbell, proved to be a revelation of what may be done with little ones.

Saturday night Prof. Ahler's Orchestra surprised the large crowd present at the play, given for the benefit of the Athletic Association, by the excellence of its technique. Miss Brady's reading of "The Travelling Man" was heartily applauded.

In "The Neighbors" Grace Kennedy, with busy hands and tongue, made a fine Mrs. Abel. Roberta Cole, her aches and pains and droll manner of speech, made a hit. Virginia Hunter showed the vigor and dash of a woman accustomed to throw life's troubles out of her way. Daisy Robison was all girl, having a sweetheart Allen Tuggee, who got the crowd with his impersonation of one whom love had made dumb or foolish. Nell Jones played Grandma with a quiet sureness and delicacy. Dowis Sampson, as Mrs. Ellsworth played her character very sympathetically. Horace Barker, as Ezra, barked as men do, but came to heel very nicely, as men do when in the hands of their women folk.

SUB-ACADEMIC PROGRAM

Please Interested Crowd

The above program was rendered at Union College on Friday evening and was a splendid evidence of what is being done among the younger members of the Conservatory of Music. It was wonderful to see the little tots from two to six years of age intelligently perform their parts in singing and playing.

A most interested and delighted audience encouraged the participants in the entertainment.

ALUMNUS AND ALUMNA Will Meet at U. C. on May 26

All graduates of Union College Academy are requested to meet in the Chapel of the College Monday morning of Commencement week, May 26th, for the purpose of organizing a permanent Alumni Association. Such an organization will go far toward cementing our school day friendships and our loyalty to our first Alma Mater. We urge that every U. C. alumnus and alumna be present. Don't forget the time, Monday morning at 10 o'clock.

PIANO RECITAL

Monday evening Mrs. W. S. Hud-nd Miss Laura Wilcox gave a piano recital in the U. C. Chapel. The many friends proved an appreciative audience. This program was a rare treat to music lovers and showed the ability and wonderful mastery of technique of both performers.

LOCAL RED CROSS

Ships Garments for French Children

Our local Red Cross, ever ready to lend an ear to the cry of need, has just finished and shipped ninety five petticoats for French girls. They were sent to Cleveland and from there will be shipped to France. Persons who failed to finish their garments for this shipment will try to get them ready for another shipment which will be made soon.

"Inasmuch as ye have done it unto the least of these my little ones ye have done it unto me."

HOUSTON BINGHAM HOME

Houston Bingham, of Hymar, was in town Tuesday having recently returned from France where he served eight months in the Medical Department of the Fifth Army Corps. His duties consisted of first aid at the back of the lines and he says his unit handled about three hundred cases a day, most of them being wounded Germans who had been captured and seemed glad they were out of it and in the hands of Americans. They were pretty well done up thru hunger and lack of rest. Mr. Bingham was in England and was greatly pleased by its beauty. He will take up railroad work for the future.

MINE FOREMAN AND FIRE BOSS EXAMINATION

The Board of Examiners will meet at the office of the Chief Inspector of Mines, Lexington, Ky., on the fourth Monday of May, (the 26) to hold examinations of applicants for Mine Foreman and Fireboss Certificates.

Before any one may enter the examinations, he must pay a fee of $2.50 to the Auditor of Public Accounts, Frankfort, Ky., and present the receipt therefor to the Board of Examiners.

C. J. Norwood, Chief Inspector of Mines, Lexington, Kentucky.

KNOX COUNTY GETS TENT MEETING

Temporary organization was entered into at a meeting at the First National Bank Thursday when B. J. Sandman, special agent for the Louisville Board of Trade and the Kentucky Bankers Association, put the question to the meeting as to whether or not the County wished to secure the tent meetings dealing with agriculture, education and health. It was decided to accept same R. W. Cole being appointed temporary chairman and Fred Burman, secretary. The secretary was instructed to call a meeting for Monday, May 26, at 1 p. m. when permanent organization will be adopted.

You are invited to attend and bring some one with you. Ladies are urged to be present.

WOMAN'S STUDY CLUB

The Woman's Study Club held its regular meeting with Mrs. S. T. Steele on Tuesday afternoon, May 13 at 2:30 o'clock. There were twelve members present. The Secretary read several communications one especially interesting to the club members from Countess M. De Leidekerke, President of the Purple Cross of Belgium, a benevolent society in that hapless land, which looks after the country's helpless orphans, maintained by people in America. The child adopted by the club is known as No. 20 and is very thankful for the opportunity of going to school and to the club for the adoption.

A letter was received from State Chairman of Library Extension Committee, urging that the club women of Kentucky raise 10,000 books for the boys overseas, during the month of June.

The following program was then presented:

"Japanese Intervention in Siberia." Mrs. Richardson, "The American Legion." Mrs. Ralston. Mr. James Archer addressed the club on "Work in the Canteen with the American Army." This talk was much enjoyed and appreciated. Numerous pictures and souvenirs were displayed which fully demonstrated that our YMCA and YWCA were on their jobs in the front line trenches serving the boys as they fought.

After adjournment, delicious ice cream, cake, coffee and mints were served by the hostess.

The last meeting of the year will be held with Mrs. W. R. Lay, Monday, May 26, to arrange for the "outing" at Dishman Springs on Tuesday in honor of Miss Martha Potter, of Bowling Green, and Miss Sonnenberg, of Cincinnati, the Demonstrators sent out by the State Federation to lecture and demonstrate food values.

VOTERS ATTENTION

Saturday May 24th, from 1 p. m. to 6 p. m. the polls will be open for you at the graded High School. Go and cast your vote for the School Bond issue and put Barbourville school where it should be.

FRANK P. OWENS Meets Tragic Death Sunday

Frank P. Owens, who with his son Fred P. Owens, ran a mercantile business at Grays, Ky., met death from a self inflicted wound Sunday morning.

The family, with the exception of little Maxine Vicars, granddaughter of deceased, were out feeding the stock. Mr. Owens who still used crutches as a result of a broken thigh, having remained in bed. When the family reappeared they were informed by Maxine that she had heard a noise in her grandpa's room. On investigating they found Mr. Owens lying dead with the top of his head blown off. He had risen and put on his underclothes when, moved by one of those impulses which are both inexplicable and irrevivable, he picked up a gun, placed it under the temple above the right eye and pulled the trigger. The result was instant death, part of the contents of the head being blown into the next room.

Deceased had friends by the score who will regret the rash act which proved such a terrible shock to the family and community.

Interment took place Monday with a large number of friends at the cemetery.

JUDGE J. H. DAVIS PASSES

The death of Judge John H. Davis occurred at the family home Monday morning at 2 o'clock following a sickness of some months.

Judge Davis numbered his friends in Knox County by the thousand, having been in public life for many years. At one time he was County Judge, County Court Clerk, Assistant County Court Clerk and also practiced law.

His life was straight and clean and he leaves an honored name to his three sons, John, Will and Joe, the latter of whom, with the widow lives in Barbourville.

The funeral took place from the Baptist Church, Tuesday, May 26th, at 10 a. m. Rev. R. L. Creal preaching the funeral sermon. The interment was in City Cemetery, the pall bearers being the church deacons, Messrs. E. W. Roach, P. D. Brittain, W. F. Amis, B. F. Parker, E. E. Evans and John Parker.

MAY LOSE NIGHT MAIL

The fact that the street car will probably be put out of business because the owners will find it too expensive to take up the rails, pay their proportion of the asphalt and relay heavier rails, may result in another privilege being taken away from our citizens.

At the present time the Jones Hotel acts as assistant postmaster to the public. They are able to do so because the car carries down their mail and the mail to the depot at 11 p. m. Should the street car be put out of business, this privilege will have to be dispensed with and letters written later than 7 p. m. will have to remain over till next morning.

What this town needs is an organization to handle just such difficulties but it does not have one and has to muddle along as best it can.

OIL NEWS

G. W. Hammons and E. K. Caleb, oil drillers, left for the Irvine oil fields Monday.

Willard Rouse Jillson, Kentucky State Geologist, was here for some days looking over the oil structure of Knox County and makes an exceedingly favorable report on the oil prospects.

C. R. Dulin, oil operator, who opened up the Irvine pool is now in Clay County looking after his gas production and is moving on to a new location. He is also putting in a carbon black plant, using his natural gas wells at Big Springs for inputs at the north end of Knox Co. where it is thought he will do some deep testing.

Mark Wymond has brought in a new drilling machine and is starting a new well on the Miracle lease. He is getting his other four wells to pumping and shaping up his leases.

F. M. Bryson, of Lexington, Vice President and General Manager of the Ken-Flo Co., is in town looking after the interests of that go-a-head company.

The Ken-Flo has some good stuff on the Morris lease on Little Richland and has brought in a new 24 Star drilling machine and all necessary equipment to push the work along.

This is one of the centers of excellent production and next door to them is the Bingham lease where a 25 barrel well was brought in last week. The prospects for the Ken-Flo are excellent. The stockholders of the company are said to be mostly Lexington and Paris people who already have three producing wells giving 30 barrels a day. It is only a matter of time when someone will go deeper and Knox County will be put in the class of big producers with millions of dollars worth of liquid oil flowing from the ground. What is needed is nerve to go after it.

John C. Main is at Lexington this week organizing a Clay County Oil Company.

The Kentucky Development Co. is connecting the Valentine well on Richland to a pump. This company is said to have spent $30,000 in Knox County already in leases and other items.

Messrs. McDermott, Main and Hershberg have bought the L. W. Hampton lease with three fully equipped wells and will begin pumping at once.

The Bingham Oil Company has a well due this week.

BOOKLET ON KENTUCKY

G. A. Park, General Immigration and Industrial L. & N. R. Agent, Louisville, Ky., has prepared a splendidly gotten up booklet on Kentucky which may be had for the asking.

It is beautifully printed and deals with prize winning horses, cattle, sheep, wheat, corn, tobacco, hay, sweet clover, dairy products, hemp, chickens and turkeys, potatoes, sweet potatoes, cotton fruit growing, trucking, rural activities. In fact it is a splendid compendium of useful information. Write for a copy.

A BIG CHANCE

To Get Next To A Good Thing

While we are working for good roads our officials should not overlook the fact that Clay County has put thru a bond issue for $250,000, which, with Federal aid, will mean some $750,000 more or less.

It will be up to us to connect with the Manchester road and to get the benefit of the big investment Clay County is making. The logical route is thru Knox County, but if we fail to make a proper connection and leave a long stretch of bad road, Clay County may find it advisable to look elsewhere for a connection that will not leave a missing link at the terminus of its good roads.

This matter should receive immediate and practical attention.

SHOULD HAVE NEW DEPOT

The need of a new depot for Barbourville is apparent. In the first place, the present one is too small for the passenger traffic and secondly, it lacks the artistic in every way.

We think it the duty of our citizens to get together and put the matter of a new depot up to the L. & N. people and see if something cannot be done toward a bigger and better one.

JUST FOLKS

The Follower of Midas.
Folks are awfully human are they not? And some of them lose their humanity. There is the fellow who can read but doesn't, except the denomination of the bills he handles and, by the workings of the law of nature, the desire to have and to hold more and more greenbacks financally dominates his mind until he becomes an excellent money making machine and so passes to the etenerities with the best part of his make-up uncultivated. He is an undesirable citizen, not given to charity, good works or civic advancement. Buried, he represents dust to dust and contemptuous memory.

IS NOW GOVERNOR

Lt. Gov. Jas. D. Black became Governor of Kentucky at noon, May 19th, when Gov. Owsley Stanley took the oath of office as United States Senator in Washington. The inauguration ceremonies were without any special features.

STREET WORK PROGRESSING

Citizens are greatly interested in the street work now being done on Black, Pitzer and Main. They are beginning to realize what it will be to have the town lifted out of the mud and placed in the class of paved cities. When the work is completed Barbourville will feel a pride in its streets and in the Council which built them that won't rub off.

It is of interest to know that Main Street will be the Dixie Highway entrance to town and will thus bring the automobiles to the city.

WALKER WHISPERS

Parent Teachers Association

The meeting of the Parent Teachers Association on last Friday, marked the closing of the second year of work done by this splendid organization. The Parent Teachers Association of Barbourville was organized for the purpose of bringing the citizens of the town into closer touch with the work of the Public School. It has proven itself to be one of the greatest assets of the school, as the following report will testify. On last Friday full reports of the work done during the past year by each committee of the organization, were read and it was not until these reports were heard that the members themselves realized just what the Parent Teachers Association has meant to the school and the community in a financial way alone and no one can estimate its value in other ways. Much credit is due our very capable president, Mrs. C. F. Heidrick, for the success of every phase of work undertaken during the past year. She has devoted much time, thought and work to its every interest, and in the face of many odds, has brought the association quite successfully thru a most trying year.

We believe the public at large is interested in the work and so we present in condensed form the financial report for the closing year:

It Takes Two Things to Make a Good Oil Company and Be Successful—

OIL LAND AND HONEST MANAGEMENT

Block 30 of the Wichita Valley Lands is the Munger Ranch. It has long been known to hundreds of people in and around Wichita Falls that there is oil on the Munger Ranch. The Munger Well proves this. As shown by the map our shallow well will be drilled offsetting the Munger well. Thirty acres is sufficient to put, at the very least, thirty shallow wells on. It is generally admitted that the Watkins well, within 2 miles of us, is producing 75 barrels of oil daily. This oil sells for $2.50 per barrel. Thirty wells producing 75 barrels each makes 2,250 barrels per day. If we allow the 50 cents per barrel for expenses and royalty, the Munger Ranch Oil Company will have a net income of $4,500 per day, or $135,000 per month. On our capitalization this will enable us to pay a monthly dividend at 225 per cent. These figures are the lowest estimate, and everybody who knows will tell you we can't miss the shallow oil.

We will also drill a deep well—1,850 feet if necessary. We are going to drill a deep well because the trend of the deep oil seems to be through our land, and because geologists and the best informed oil men think there is deep oil also on the Munger Ranch. The Kemp-Munger-Allen Oil Co., which company is backed by some of the wealthiest and most successful men in the Southwest, is drilling a deep well on their holdings, which are within 800 yards of our land. If we get this deep well, Munger Ranch will be a repetition of the Fowler bonanza. Fowler $100 certificates selling for $15,000.

You can hardly loose because we are nearly certain of the shallow oil. This alone will more than double your money every month. If we get the deep oil also, every $100 stockholder will be wealthy. Now is your golden opportunity. It is your duty to grasp it.

Elbert Evans and Miss Mollie E. Smith were united in the bonds of matrimony Wednesday evening at 9 o'clock at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Rasnick, Rev. O. C. Haas performing the ceremony.

The bride is the charming and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Smith of Allison Ave. and well known for her musical ability.

The groom is an employee of the L. & N. Depot and is not only a good business man but also very popular among our citizens generally.

Their many friends will wish them every joy and prosperity in their new estate.

The young couple are spending their honeymoon at Knoxville, Tenn. and other southern points.

FEDERATED WOMAN'S CLUBS

Eleventh District Annual Meeting

Out of appreciation of the invitation from the Corbin clubs who were entertaining the Second Annual Meeting of the Eleventh District of the Kentucky Federation of Woman's Clubs of which the Civic League and Woman's Study Club are members, a large delegation went to Corbin last Thursday.

Routine work was transacted during the morning at which our clubs' reports made a good showing of things accomplished. At noon a delightful luncheon was served in the Baptist Church parlors by the Corbin ladies.

During the afternoon session Mrs. Nat Sewell, of London, gave an address, "Pooling Our Interests for Reconstruction," which proved to be a masterpiece of thought and clear expression and was an inspiration to all. Mrs. Weaver, second Vice President of the Kentucky Federation, spoke along more personal lines of club endeavor.

A pleasant part of the entertainment which was much appreciated by all present was Barbourville's contribution. Mrs. W. C. Black played several piano selections showing herself to be a master performer, and Mrs. C. F. Rathfon sang two very appropriate selections in her most pleasing manner.

The evening was given over to an address by Miss Mary E. Sweeny of Lexington, on "Lights and Shadows of the Argonne Drive with the American Army." Miss Sweeny was a canteen worker with the YMCA in France and was associated with Mr. J. E. Archer who took advantage of this opportunity of renewing their acquaintance. One must hear her to appreciate what she did and the many experiences she had as a night worker among thousands of enlisted men.

Wherever the Federation of Woman's Clubs holds a session they bring together busy women who do things every day and the community has a rare opportunity to hear some speaker of more than local repute.

Following is a list of those who attended from Barbourville:

Mesdames, James R. Tugge, S. T. Davidson, W. C. Black, Fred Burman, H. M. Oldfield, Z. T. Ralston, Katherine Swearingen, J. S. Miller, Lulu B. Smith, H. H. Owens, W. W. Tinsley, C. F. Rathfon, Maude Marcum, C. P. Kennedy, J. D. Tugge, Miss Gertrude Black and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Archer.

Cause of Headache.

By knowing the cause, a disease may often be avoided. This is particularly true of headache. The most common cause of headache is disordered stomach or constipation, which may be corrected by taking a few doses of Chamberlain's Tablets. Try it. Many others have obtained permanent relief by taking these tablets. They are easy to take and mild and gentle in effect.

HOW CLEOPATRA'S NEEDLE WAS SAVED

New Process Invented to Preserve Surface of Monolith in Central Park.

HIEROGLYPHS OBLITERATED.

Rigors of Western Climate Caused Khedive's Gift to Disintegrate. Painting Ancient Obelisk With Special Preparation Stayed Decay—Ruined Portions Restored.

New Yorkers awoke one morning to find in their breakfast headlines the news that a zealous park employee had discovered signs of disintegration on the surface of the city's most treasured antique—Cleopatra's Needle. Photographs revealed that the monolith was peeling, large pieces of sandstone having fallen from the tall shaft, carrying with them part of the prized hieroglyphics.

London's twin sister of Cleopatra's Needle was reported as resting comfortably and enduringly on the banks of the Thames, and the rival port wondered whether a preparation would be found to stay the attacks of their harsher climate.

Such a preparation was soon forthcoming. A new paint combination as a preservative for stone was invented

THE OBELISK.

The Obelisk was presented to the City of New York by the Khedive of Egypt, Lieutenant Commander Gorringe, U.S.N., after a three years' effort, obtaining possession of it and sending it to its present position, at an expense of nearly $100,000. It was finally swung into position at 1 p.m., Jan. 22, 1881.

The height of this monument, from base to tip, is 69 feet, 2 inches. The measurement of the base square through its axis, is 7 feet, 8 $\frac{1}{2}$ inches. The entire weight of the monolith is 100 tons.

Since it was quarried near the torrid zone, it has traversed the entire length of Egypt, most of that of the Mediterranean Sea and the width of the Atlantic Ocean—a distance of 6,400 miles—providing ample travel for one whose age has exceeded thirty-five centuries.

In the course of its entire history it has seen Pharaoh and his host going to their destruction in the Red Sea; Shoshenq marching into Jerusalem; Cambyses desolating the land.

Herodotus, Plato and other Greek philosophers and students of Egyptian lore; Alexander the Great on his victorious expedition through the land of Egypt; and the half centuries of Roman sovereignty and Christian struggle at Alexandria.

It has seen the long line of Moslem rulers since Caliph Omar, and now, leaving altogether its native land, it stands in the heart of a great city, on the million dwellers in this metropolis, whose site was unknown to the Eastern world until 1877, when the Obelisk has been in existence for two thousand years.

The Extra Feature

By S. B. HACKLEY

(Copyright, 1919, by the McClure News Syndicate.)

When John Lawrence left his home on the outskirts of town and took the little path along the railroad, he walked as though he were treading on air. His heart was in tune with all the world and the autumn sun, just setting, seemed a great pot of gold, at the end of his day's rainbow, beckoning him on toward everlasting happiness. Lillith had given him to understand that afternoon that she really cared—Lillith, who had courted with him ever since she began going away to school. There could be no mistake about her attitude this time, her open encouragement permitting but one interpretation.

"May I come—tonight?" he had whispered as he was leaving her.

"Try and see," she answered coyly, wafting him a butterfly kiss from the tips of her fingers. And he was going to her now. He had determined to settle the future that very evening, come what may, and he was thinking with honest pride, as he walked along, of the comfortable nestegg in the savings bank which he could offer Lillith. When he was almost in front of the house he heard a sound of laughter and merrymaking from within, like a discordant note in the song life was singing.

"Mother take it!" he muttered. "Why couldn't she have been alone tonight, all the time?"

"Here he is!" shouted Lillith gayly, answering his ring; "let's make him stir the fudge."

He was dragged playfully into the living room, divested of outer garments and adorned with a huge gingham apron, which Lillith tied under his arms.

"From site roles are very becoming," she whispered, with a blushing smile which set his heart to beating a brisk tattoo. "Here's the spoon, and don't you mind stopping until I give you permission."

She closed his fingers over the spoon with an affectionate pat, turned the blaze a trifle higher under the chafing dish, and then left him to play a duet with Hugh Birch. Still John had not wholly given up being in Lillith's house for just one purpose, which he meant to accomplish in spite of visitors.

"Cryin', Jenkins?" old Tobins, sitting smoking on their bedroom hearth that evening, asked unceasingly. Jenkins wiped her eyes.

"I got to studyin' about Minerva a waitin' on her impatience on account of us and it worried me some, Bias," she confessed.

After Jenkins slept, Bias still sat on the hearth. Minerva was delicate, like their little Hettie who had died sixteen years before three months after the soldier sweetheart they had not been willing for her to marry had been laid under Cuban palms.

"Little Hettie! Little Hettie!" he murmured. "Lord, if I let her hold her way about Jess' Dug, she might not have pined away! Jess, he wasn't a bad boy—I wish I hadn't stood in her way—I do wish it, Lord!"

His pipe clattered on the hearth. His heavy groans awakened Jenkins.

"The pain Doc Higgins said was from my heart, it's painchin' a little," he labored out, his hand clutching his chair rungs, his rugged old face chalky.

Jenkins trembled as she measured out the drops the young doctor had left for him. The doctor had warned her all worry must be kept from Bias, and he had worried because he had caught her crying about Minerva!

"You reckon you worked too hard at the apples, Bias?" she asked him when at last she got him between the bed covers.

"No, I got to thinkin' about our little Hettie. I was wishin' I could go back them sixteen years and tell the little, lovin' thing her and Jess might marry before he went to the fightin'. Then the pain struck me."

She patted his hands in gentle soothing. "Hettie and Jess wasn't long separated, Bias, honey!" The Lord saw to that! Now try to go to sleep."

But it was long before he closed his eyes.

"They could come and live with us and things would be all right," Jenkins heard him murmur over and over in his fitful sleep. "If Eliza was willin'." Then once he cried out:

"She's a goin' like Hettie, Jenkins-like Hettie! Can't you see it?"

When he was quiet again, Jenkins heard him murmuring over and over in his fitful sleep, "If Eliza was willin'." The called out, "we'll soon have something delectable to please your sweet teeth, if John will carry it out to cool."

She poured the fudge upon a platter and held it out to him in such a half-frightened, pleading way, as usual, he fell before the spell of her wonderful eyes and found himself carrying the candy obediently to the back porch. But a dash of the bracing night air restored his determination and he tore off the apron as he strode angrily into the hall. "Must you go, John?" Lillith asked timidly, with a faint note of concern in her voice.

"I shall not stay here and have you mock me for one more second! You knew—you must have known—I was coming here tonight to ask you to be my wife, and you've played with me just as long as you're going to! What's your answer?"

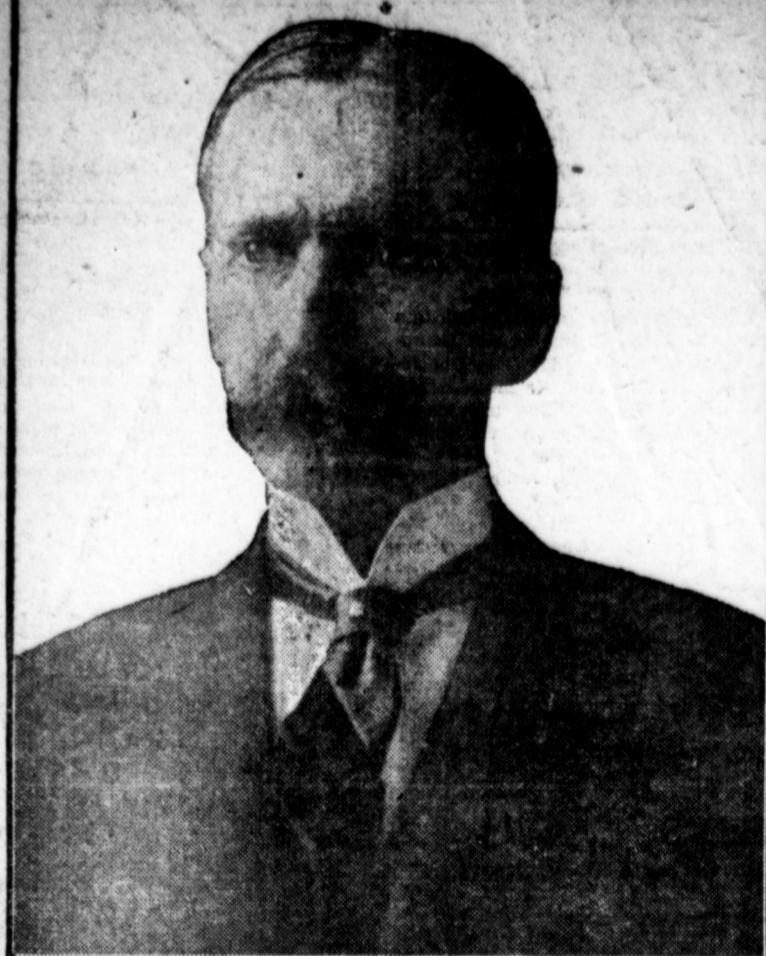

He led her into the vestibule and shut the door, just as the rest of the party adjourned to the back porch to examine the candy, so they were alone.

"Will you marry me?" he went on, taking her face between his hands and raising her eyes to the level of his own. "Answer me—will you?"

A peal of hysterical, mocking laughter was her only reply, and John Lawrence left her, going out without another word. As he walked along the railroad track, taking the short cut home, his heart was heavy. Lillith had deliberately laughed in his face after nobly encouraging him to speak.

There was only one other thought in his mind and that was to get away from her as far and as fast as he could.

He was dimly conscious that the whistle of the night express had sounded around the curve the other side of the bridge, but he was too deeply occu-

HOSTESS HOUSE FAMILY REUNION

How It Happened to Entertain Only A. E. F. Mother Who Visited Army of Occupation.

BIG CORPORAL DUTIFUL SON.

No Knightly Courtiers Ever Acted With More Gallantry to Lady Fair Than Did He and His Doughboy Pals to This Little White Haired Woman Dressed Exclusively in Black.

By GRACE GOUDER,
(With the American Y. W. C. A. Overseas.)

Coblenz, Germany,

March 28 (By Mail.)

It happened right here in Coblenz. A big corporal came into the Y. W. C. A. Hostess House and asked for the director, Miss Ruth Woodsmill, who comes from Colorado Springs, Colo.

"Could my mother stay here?" he began at once, trying his best to cover his excitement.

"Your mother!" gasped Miss Woodsmill. "How did your mother ever get here?"

"Well, she isn't here yet, but if she comes will you keep her?"

"Of course I will, but—"

She didn't finish, for the boy had smashed his cap back on his head and was out of the door on a run.

The corporal's visit remained a mystery for two days. Then one evening just at dusk a little white haired woman dressed exclusively in black appeared in the sitting room of the Hostess House, and the corporal was hovering behind her, trying to be beside her and back of her and in front of her all at once. He was carrying her coat—a big fur one. With them were three doughboys, pals of the corporal. They tried to keep in the background, but their eyes were glued on her face.

Everyone in the sitting room sat at attention. There are no English speaking men or women out of uniform in the Third Army area. Yet here was a woman in civilian clothes. Mothers are unheard of with the army. But this was a mother, everyone knew.

After awhile someone found out about this mother.

Had Been Interned During War.

She and her husband, who were born in Germany, but had been naturalized, lived in San Francisco. Before the war they left for Weisbaden, Germany, that their invalid daughter might have treatment at this famous health resort.

They brought their other children with them. One was Walter, a small boy, and the other was Ralph, now Corporal Stepp of the American Army.

When the war was declared they sent Ralph back to America, because he was of military age, and they did not want him to fight for the Kaiser. Then America entered the war.

Mrs. Stepp—Mrs. Anna Stepp she is told this part of the story:

"Until a month ago I hadn't heard from Ralph for two years and a half—even before America got in the war mail was held up. I didn't know whether he was in the army or not—but I was sure he was, because—well, because he is an American." Here she stopped a minute to smile up at him.

"After awhile we heard from some friends that he was in the army—and that he had come over here. That was all I ever knew. It's nearly five years since I have seen him!"

"Of course it was awfully hard—I couldn't get word to him and he couldn't to me. My husband used to tell me it wouldn't help Ralph any for me to cry. I tried not to—before the rest of them anyway. My daughter got worse steadily—she is no better. We couldn't get the proper food for her after awhile. And she hated to see me worried about Ralph, so I used to try to keep up before them."

"Last January my husband came to Coblenz about his citizen papers. An American soldier in Ralph's company who was in the office heard his name and asked him if he was any relation to Ralph. He didn't tell him Ralph was in Coblenz, but went after Ralph. He didn't tell Ralph his father was here. When they met they couldn't believe their eyes."

"Ever since then I have been trying to see Ralph. He couldn't come to Weisbaden because it was out of the American area, and I couldn't get through until today—more than two months."

They asked her if her Ralph had changed much in all that time.

"Oh, yes—very much. But do you know, I think it is because all that long time when I didn't know where he was or how he was—I got in the habit of thinking of him as he was when he was a baby—I kept seeing him as a baby and remembering the way he felt when he was little. Isn't that queer? And now look at him!"

And the corporal tried not to see the adoration in her eyes.

"Five years is a long time to wait to see your boy," she murmured, and kept her eyes on him. Again she had forgotten the people around her.

The corporal cleared his throat. "This is why I ask if you could keep my mother, Miss Woodsmill. I didn't want her to come unless she had a good place to stay. Ah, e-e-r-thanks awfully."

And that is the story of how the Hostess House happened to entertain the only known A. E. F. mother who has visited the Army of Occupation.

Y. W. C. A. Provides Home For Actresses at Camp Dix, N. J.

Actresses who play in the Liberty Theater at Camp Dix, N. J., find a touch of home in the Players' House which the housing committee of the Young Women's Christian Association, of which Mrs. John D. Rockefeller, Jr., is chairman, operates for them. Because of the distance from any town where they might stay, it was necessary to provide some sort of living accommodations for the actresses. The Y. W. C. A. built the house, supplying it with all conveniences such as sewing machines, washubs and ironing boards. Camp Dix, L. I., has a similar house.

MAKING CITIZENS OF ALIENS

Excellent Work Done Through Classes Conducted Under Auspices of Bureau of Naturalization.

Many aliens who enter the naturalization courts as candidates for citizenship are much better grounded in the knowledge of American government and institutions than the average native of this country. Indeed, some aliens are able to answer questions that the judges themselves are not able to answer off-hand.

The reason for their excellent knowledge of the American government lies in the care taken by the citizenship classes, now conducted in public schools throughout the country by the bureau of naturalization, department of labor, to inculcate thorough familiarity with the institutions of the land of their adoption. The courses given by these classes are designed to raise the standard of citizenship by insuring a preparation adequate to meet the requirements of the most exacting state laws.

Naturalization is a somewhat complicated process at best, for not only must the alien satisfy the requirements of the state in which he expects citizenship, but he must also meet the demands of the naturalization court, which has the right to reject his application, at its own discretion.

The citizenship classes aim to make the way to citizenship as easy as possible for men and women who are willing to fit themselves for it.—Grit.

SPRUCING UP UNDER FIRE

Soldier in the Trenches Wielded Razor While Enemy Shells Were Passing Above Him.

The sailor who can shave himself in a storm has found his match in the soldier Walter Ehrman, a Kansas City man, saw at the Argonne front. Ehrman was with a medical corps and as he passed into No Man's Land with the stretcher bearers, he noticed a youth in khaki hiding in a shell hole.

"He had a mirror between his knees," writes Ehrman, "and he was intermittently shaving himself. Which is to say, that, between acts, he'd now a section of his face. Whenever a shell would come over he would duck expertly, only to resume his interrupted task in moments of what you might call peace.

"Hey, buddy, do you need a shave that bad?" I asked him.

"Aw, my mug's so blame dirty, had to have it," was his reply.

"And here's another: One of our medics found a pair of hair clippers on the field, and while he was waiting in a shell hole with a doughboy until an enemy barrage should light up, he clipped that doughboy's hair as nice and stylish as you please, till they'd hardly let him in when he returned to the trench, he looked that different."

Tim Healy's Wit.

The resignation of Tim Healy from parliament, says a writer in Tit-Bits, means that the house will lose its greatest wit. I recall, from his inexhaustible list of witticisms, his description of a bill to which he objected as the offspring of "headache of the Irish office," while he once declared that the making of the late Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman into chief secretary was an attempt to govern Ireland with Scotch jokes. One of Tim's most exquisite imaginings, however, was during a divorce case, when he said that "the spectacle of his learned friend's client crying in the witness box was the greatest miracle that had ever happened since Moses drew water from the rock."

Ministry of Knitters.

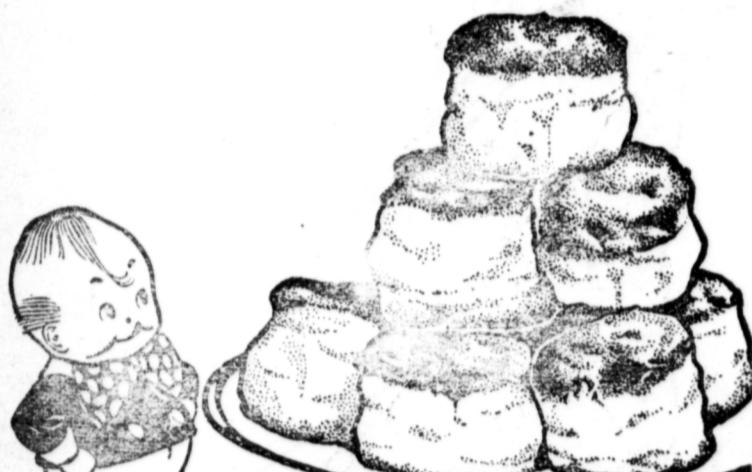

With real regret a good many of our ladies will lay aside their knitting needles at the word that their industry has supplied the immediate needs of the soldiers and sailors. Their record of millions of sweaters, helmets and other protective gear is unexampled in the history of the world, and will be immortal in the grateful memories of the returning heroes. These knitters did not need to begin their lesson of thought for others when they took up knitting. But having kept it at the forefront of attention for so long, they will certainly be eager to find other means of thoughtful ministry.—Congregationalist and Advance.

Was Good to See Her.

Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt, who is home on a furlough after four years of service in France, where she has been for the last 18 months directress of canteens for the Red Cross, was just about to enter a New York shop the other day when she felt some one touching her arm. Turning, she was face to face with two husky doughboys that she had helped to nurse back to health in one of the convalescent homes in France. "Mrs. Vanderbilt," one exclaimed, while both extended rough, work-hardened hands. "It's sure good to see you again. We don't forget old friends like you."

Kaiser's Sublime Vanity.

Of the innumerable stories told of the ex-kaiser's vanity none surpasses one concerning a little incident that took place on board a British warship a few years ago. The recently deposed emperor was being entertained at dinner during a visit to the British fleet, and when smoking began took up a cigar and looked around for a cutter. One not being handy, an officer immediately offered him a penknife, which William used and returned with the solemn remark, "Keep it and guard it well; one day it will be historic."

HIGHEST QUALITY AWARDS

Y. W. C. A. UNIFORMS TO CLOTHE STUDENTS

Suits Worn by War Workers Will Be Given to Penniless Students in Switzerland.

Official uniforms of the Young Women's Christian Association minus the Blue Triangle, the Association insignia, will be worn next winter by women students who have been stranded in Switzerland during the war and who, because of lack of funds, inability to re-enter their native country, a desire to finish their university courses or because they have no family to which to return, will remain there next year.

Elizabeth M. Clark, who has been in Switzerland for ten years under the World Student Christian Federation, has appealed to the National Student Committee of the Y. W. C. A. for clothing for the 300 foreign women students in Switzerland. The scarcity of clothing last year among these almost refugee students made it necessary for two girls to share one coat, so that only one could go to classes or go out of doors at a time.

Four large packing cases of all kinds of used clothing, save hats, which is in good condition, have been collected hastily from women college students in the New England States, Ohio, West Virginia, Pennsylvania, Maryland and Delaware by the Student Committee of the National Y. W. C. A. to be sent over in response to Miss Clark's appeal. This clothing will be dyed, cleaned and made over in Switzerland.

In addition to the clothing collected from students in colleges nearest New York a case of uniforms, which have been turned in by Y. W. C. A. secretaries who did war work, and the official gray uniform blouses is being sent. As uniforms are being turned in by war workers they will be claimed by the Student Committee, which will remove the insignia and prepare the uniforms so that they may be worn by these women who have been forced by world events to remain in Switzerland for several years.

The United States will have another great payday on May 15th, when 78 million dollars in Liberty Bond interest will be paid to the American people. If every bondholder clips his interest coupons and exchanges them for May War Savings Stamps at any post office or bank, this will grow to $3 million dollars on January 1st, 1924. Get your share! Every $4.16 in War Savings Stamps will grow to $5.00. Keep your Dollars growing.

DO YOU ENJOY LIFE?

A man in good physical condition is almost certain to enjoy life, while the bilious and dyspeptic are dependent, do not enjoy their meals and feel miserable a good share of their time. This ill feeling is nearly always unnecessary. A few doses of Chamberlain's Tablets to tone up the stomach, improve the digestion and regulate the bowels is all that is needed. Try it.

JOYFUL EATING

Unless your food is digested without the aftermath of painful acidity, the joy is taken out of both eating and living.

The coal production business is beginning to show signs of life. Shortage of labor and production during the past few months has depleted stocks. If the government does not hand out another solar plexus blow to price fixing as they did last spring business will again return to normal.

There seems to be some doubt in the mind of Government as to the professed patriotism of the "wets." The United States Revenue Bureau, it is reported, will appoint 3,000 deputy inspectors to do police work in the various zones of the country beginning July 1, to see that the prohibition law is enforced. Also, the Department of Justice will keep an eye on these same "patriots."

About Rheumatism.

Rheumatism causes more pain and suffering than any other disease, for the reason that it is the most common of all ills, and it is certainly gratifying to sufferers to know that there is a remedy that will afford relief, and make rest and sleep possible. It is called Chamberlain's Liniment.

LAME EVERY MORNING

A Bad Back is Generally Worse in the Morning. Barbourville People are Finding Relief.

A back that aches all day and causes discomfort at night is usually worse in the morning. Makes you feel as if you hadn't slept at all.

You can't get rid of kidney backache, until you reach the cause — the kidneys.

Doan's Kidney Pills are especially prepared for weakened or disordered kidneys — been gratefully recommended by thousands.

The following statement proves the merit of Doan's.

Henry Howard, Prospect Ave., Pineville, says: "About two years ago I had an attack of kidney and rheumatic trouble. I had sharp cutting pains thru my limbs and mornings I was so sore and lame I could hardly walk. My limbs were swollen and a dent remained in the flesh when I pressed with my fingers. My kidneys acted irregularly and the secretions contained sediment. Doan's Kidney Pills relieved the rheumatic twinges, regulated my kidneys and I was free from all the aches and pains in my limbs."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy — get Doan's Kidney Pills — the same that Mr. Howard had. Foster-Millburn Co., Mfgs., Buffalo, N. Y.

This is practically virgin forest and is joint property owned by the undersigned and his wife.

Purchaser will be prepared to give security for the purchase price and the terms will be three, six, nine and twelve months interest bearing notes. Written contract to govern further specifications.

DEVONIA

AQUA REMEDIUM AMERICANA

$200 IN GOLD $200 FOR A SLOGAN

WE WANT a slogan for Devonia—the American Medicinal Mineral Water—a slogan with punch and snap to it—something that really suggests the benefit which comes from using Devonia. And we are going to give $200 in gold to the person who sends us the best slogan. Think of it! $200 for just a few words. But Devonia, the finest of medicinal mineral waters the world over is worth it—worth your best thought and effort.

What Devonia Is.

Devonia is an American Medicinal Mineral Water. No other water has a record of such helpfulness to the ailing. Some of these for which it has been widely and successfully prescribed by physicians are: Constipation, Rheumatic Affections, High Blood Pressure, Hardening of the Arteries, Eczema and similar ailments.

Unlike many other mineral waters, Devonia comes to you just as it comes from its natural source, a thousand feet underground. Nothing is added to it to make it stronger. It is not condensed. Yet so effective is it that a tablespoonful to a glass of water is all usually required for effective results. Neither is it a powerful cathartic. Its properties are remedial, alterative and reconstructive. But to know what Devonia really is you should learn what it has done for others. Get some of our booklets, "The Story of a Well Man," or some of the others.

No Conditions To This Contest.

You may send in one slogan or many. You do not need to buy anything. All we ask is that the slogan be short and snappy. As we want only one slogan, there will be only one prize—$200—but that is worth winning.

The judges will be the officers of The Devonian Mineral Spring Company, Mr. Thomas E. Basham, president of the Thomas E. Basham Company, our advertising agents, and the advertising managers of the four Louisville papers.

All slogans must be in our hands by June 1. The announcement will be made as soon thereafter as the judges can reach a decision, and their decision will be final. In case the winning slogan is suggested by two or more persons the prize will be divided equally. All slogans become the property of The Devonian Mineral Spring Company.

Mail your slogan to The Devonian Mineral Spring Company, executive offices Owensboro, Ky. For our convenience we ask you to use the coupon.
